(CTTIC)

OTTAWA (ONTARIO) December 5, 2005 – During its Annual General Meeting, held in Montreal on November 26 , 27, 2005, the Canadian Translators, Terminologists and Interpreters Council (CTTIC) elected the following persons to the Executive Committee:

President: Kenneth Larose, Certified Translator, president of the Association of Translators and Interpreters of Ontario (ATIO)

Vice-president: Michel Parent, Certified Translator, member of the Ordre des traducteurs, terminologues et interprètes agréés du Québec (OTTIAQ)

Secretary: Alain Otis, Certified Translator, member of the Corporation of Translators, Terminologists and Interpreters of New Brunswick (CTINB)

Treasurer: Marc Thériault, Certified Translator, member of the Association of Translators and Interpreters of Ontario (ATIO)

The Council also adopted a motion to warmly thank Johanne Boucher and Jean-Pierre Dany for their excellent work over the last few years as Vice-President and Chair of the Board of Certification, respectively.

Founded in 1956, CTTIC is made up of provincial and territorial associations of translators, terminologists and interpreters. The objectives of CTTIC are to co-ordinate the activities of member bodies and encourage them to work together to ensure uniform standards for the practice of the profession, and to maintain ties with national and international associations in the language field. Within these broad objectives, through its member bodies, CTTIC strives to make available to the public a body of reliable professionals in translation, terminology and interpretation, and to contribute to the progress and advancement of the profession. CTTIC is the Canadian member of FIT (International Federation of Translators).
