CANADIAN TRANSLATORS, TERMINOLOGISTS AND INTERPRETERS COUNCIL RECEIVES PROJECT SUPPORT FROM LANGUAGE SECTOR ENHANCEMENT PROGRAM

Ottawa, April 22, 2010 -- The Canadian Translators Terminologists and Interpreters Council (CTTIC) is pleased to announce that the Government of Canada, through the Language Sector Enhancement Program, is awarding it $442,000 for an innovative project.

CTTIC will set up a Web-based continuing education program for language professionals, who will be able to access the training modules from any location in Canada. All of CTTIC's member organizations, university students in translation programs, and other professionals in the language industry will have access to the program.

CTTIC is very happy to have this opportunity to call upon the strengths and skills of its various member organizations for the benefit of all language professionals in Canada. Language professionals work in a constantly-evolving environment and this continuing education program will not only keep their individual skills up to date, but will also help maintain Canada's competitive edge in the field of linguistic services.

The Canadian Translators, Terminologists and Interpreters Council brings together the organizations responsible for certifying professional translators, terminologists and interpreters in the provinces and territories. It coordinates the actions of its member organizations and promotes cooperation among them, to ensure uniformity in professional standards, and it conducts relations with national and international bodies representing language specialists. Through its member organizations, CTTIC seeks to promote professional certification as a guarantee of quality and competence, thereby contributing to the advancement of the profession and the protection of the public.
